

MAMMALS

T or F: mammals can be nocturnal or diurnal (active in the day).

What is the biggest clue that an animal is a mammal?

True. Though most species are active at night.

It has hair or fur.

Name a deep-water ocean mammal.

What is the only marsupial that lives in North America?

Whale, dolphin, or porpoise.

Opossum.

Bats.

Seven (yes, even giraffes).

Bonus question: how many neck bones do all mammals have?

What are the only flying mammals?

They are born "live" from their mothers (no egg); they drink their mother's milk.

True.

T or F: people are mammals.

What are two important things about mammal babies?

MAMMALS

"Mammals"

Cut carefully along the outside square and fold a Nature Fact-Finder!